MOTHER DAUGHTER TEA AT THE LIBRARY

This year's Mother Daughter Tea was a huge success. Nineteen young ladies were in attendance to do crafts and drink tea with female family members.

This year's featured American Girl was Blaire. Chef. Decorator. Chicken wrangler. Blaire does it all at her family's restaurant, inn and farm.

Ms Ann read to the girl's from Blaire's new book. The ladies then decorated a ceramic farm boot that can be used as a planter had tea and refreshments and played games. One lucky girl took home a Blaire doll.

Our winner this year was Adelin Koller.

Audiobooks We're Excited About

Ready Player One-Ernest Cline Wade's devoted his life to studying the puzzles hidden within this world's digital confines—puzzles that are based on their creator's obsession with the pop culture of decades past and that promise massive power and fortune to whoever can unlock them. But when Wade stumbles upon the first clue, he finds himself beset by players willing to kill to take this ultimate prize.

"Fun and exciting. An epic geekfest made better by Wil Wheaton's fabulous narration." -Jaclyn, circulation desk

Born a Crime-Trevor Noah Trevor Noah's unlikely path from apartheid South Africa to the desk of The Daily Show began with a criminal act: his birth. Trevor was born to a white Swiss father and a black Xhosa mother at a time when such a union was punishable by five years in prison.

"His tales of growing up in South Africa in the final days of apartheid are touching, funny and scary-Sometimes all at once! Hearing the book read by the author adds to its entertainment value." Ron, library director
